7 Laws of the Universe

Law of Polarity:

Everything in the universe has equal and exact opposite.

Business: Solution to your problem already exists in the same orbit.

Need more money for a hire? Need a hire? Need help with something? Problem presents itself? The solution is already around you.

- Need more money? The solution is to sell to more people.
- Need to find a hire? They already exist! They are probably in your orbit.
- Covid presented a lot of fucking problems. It also presented a lot of fucking opportunities at the exact same time.
- The greater your resistance the greater the reward.
